

CAREERS IN FASHION

1. Fashion Designer

A creative individual that designs a garment or series of garments and/or accessories (often referred to as a fashion line or collection.) They typically sketch drawings of pieces, as well as create mood boards to help guide the overall design process.

2. Fashion Illustrator

A person who draws and/or paints clothes and garment designs for commercial use in magazines, newspaper and advertising.

3. Costume Designer

A person who finds or creates appropriate apparel for opera, ballet, plays, movies or television shows.

4. Fashion Model

A person who models clothing and accessories for photographs or fashion shows.

5. Fashion Stylist

A person who coordinates the clothes, jewelry and accessories for fashion shows, photographs, music videos, social media and any public appearances made by celebrities, models or other public figures.

6. Personal Shopper

A person who works with a client to design, select and/or buy a coordinated wardrobe of garments for that client. They are sometimes employed by department stores and boutiques.

7. Fashion Photographer

A person who photographs clothing on fashion models for use in newspapers, magazines or advertising.

8. Museum Curator

A person who locates and presents works of art in museum exhibitions. The curator sorts through a collection of work, searching for pieces that the public will appreciate. Some curators specialize in specific forms, such as textiles and costumes.

9. Textile Chemist

A person who applies the principles of chemistry to the production of textiles, like those used in clothing and home furnishings. They study fibers and filaments to identify ways to improve certain fibers or create new ones.

10. Textile / Fabric Designer

A person involved in the process of creating designs for woven, knitted or printed fabrics. The field of textile and fabric design includes pattern making as well as managing the fabric and textile production process.

11. Fashion Buyer

A person who selects and buys the mix of clothing and accessories available in retail shops, department stores and chain stores.

12. Fashion Retailer

A person whose duties include selling clothing, apparel and accessories to the consumer.

13. Fashion Journalist

A person who writes fashion articles describing the latest fashion trends and designs for magazines, newspapers and social media.

14. Fashion Advertiser

A person who oversees the promotion and advertising of a designer's new or existing clothing lines and accessories.

15. Fashion Design Teacher

A person who teaches others the fundamentals of fashion design and/or illustration.

